Asheville Yacht Club

Hey everyone! I received the following email from my friend John, reviewing the newest dining spot on the Asheville scene.

I know I am not one of the girls who talk kitchen, but I sure do like well prepared food and decent restaurants. I must heartily endorse the Asheville Yacht Club as the best new restaurant in Asheville in a long time. Great Caribbean selections, well prepared, full bar, and both owners took the time to talk to us. They even make an excellent hot sauce similar to Delidas but hotter served on request. Yum! The atmosphere is fun and a Tiki theme. It has a good feel to it, and we hope it will be successful.

For those of you who do not know about Delidas: it is the most wonderful hot sauce ever made!!!! Unfortunately, it is only made in Panama and must be shipped at great expense to the US. It is certainly worth every penny!
